Kashi ka Assi by Kashinath Singh - Book Review - Anu Reviews

Kashi Ka Assi by Kashinath Singh is an epic novel that brings out the life and times of Assi – a neighborhood on the southernmost ghat at Varanasi. It was the epicenter of life in Kashi – where people used to come and spend their ‘fursat’ or free time. There would be professors, student leaders, religious gurus who would consume their poison and speak their mind in a language that best describes their opinions and feelings.

The Sahitya Akademi-winning author’s 2004 novel Kashi ka Assi chronicles life at the ghat during the 1990s. More importantly, it is a memoir of a city at the cusp of change. “Kashi is an ancient city that has managed to hold on to its culture even as the world changed around it.
