In several previous works Commander X, a retired military intelligence operative, through his close ties with members of the CIA and other 'highly positioned' contacts, has dared to speak out about the on-going battle between a group of extraterrestrials and branches of the military who refuse to go along with a Top Secret agreement made with the 'Secret Government'. This agreement, made in the 1950s, calls for an exchange of technology between the Grays and the 'Secret Government' that operates with a clearance 15 degrees above that of the President. Now for the first time anywhere, Commander X reveals the intimate details of his own horrifying contacts with the Grays and his on-going harassment by certain branches of the military.

Few people know the real identity and purpose of the Controllers, a parallel race programmed to do evil and that has complete control of our education, major philanthropic foundations, banking, media, as well as dominant influence over all world governments.

This manual exposes the true danger and reveals how we may take the Earth back, rid the planet of these sinister beings and learn to live in peace and harmony.

The social construction of genocide reflects the deeper question whether the rigid legal concept of genocide - as it emerges in the Genocide Convention and has been maintained ever since - still corresponds with the historical and social perception of the phenomenon. This book is the product of an intellectual encounter between scholars of historical and legal disciplines which have joined forces to address this question.

Unravelling the genealogies and permutations of conspiracist worldviews, this work shows how this web of urban legends has spread among sub-cultures on the Internet and through mass media, and how this phenomenon relates to larger changes in American culture.

Traumatic experiences and their consequences are often the core of life stories told by survivors of violence. In Trauma: Life Stories of Survivors leading academics explore the relationship between the experiences of terror and helplessness that have caused trauma, the ways in which survivors remember, and the representation of these memories in the language and form of their life stories. International case studies include the migration of Ethiopian Jews to Israel, the life stories of Guatemalan war widows, violence in South Africa, persecution of political prisoners in South Africa and the former Czechoslovakia, lynching in the Mississippi Delta, resistance in Zimbabwe's liberation war, sexual abuse, and the ongoing Irish troubles. The volume reveals the complexity of remembering and forgetting traumatic experiences, and shows that survivors are likely to express themselves in stories containing elements that are imaginary, fragmented, and loaded with symbolism. Trauma: Life Stories of Survivors is a groundbreaking work of relevance across the social sciences. This new perspective on trauma will be of particular importance to researchers in psychology, history, women's studies, anthropology, sociology and cultural studies. POW/MIA Policy and Process Inner Light - Global communications Nearly three thousand people died in the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. In Lower Manhattan, on a field in Pennsylvania, and along the banks of the Potomac, the United States suffered the single largest loss of life from an enemy attack on its soil. In November 2002 the United States Congress and President George W. Bush established by law the National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States, also known as the 9/11 Commission. This independent, bipartisan panel was directed to examine the facts and circumstances surrounding the September 11 attacks, identify lessons learned, and provide recommendations to safeguard against future acts of terrorism. This volume is the authorized edition of the Commission's final report.
